Questions

Acts Chapters 13 and 14 tells of the first journey of Paul. Barnabas and John Mark accompanied him. The journey started at Antioch and went to the following cities.

- Salamis - Preached in the synagogues.
- Paphos - Elymas (Bar-Jesus), a sorcerer, tried to prevent them from teaching Sergius Paulus, a deputy. Elymas was blinded and Sergius Paulus believed.
- Perga - John Mark left them and returned to Jerusalem.
- Antioch (Pisidia) - Preached in the synagogue for two Sabbaths. Taught the Gentiles. The Jews stirred up the people and ran them out of town.
- Iconium - Many Jews and Greeks believed. The unbelieving Jews divided the city and the apostles were assaulted and stoned.
- Lystra - Paul healed a crippled man. They thought he was a god and called him Mercurius and called Barnabas Jupiter. Paul corrected them and urged them to stop worshipping false gods. Some Jews came from Antioch and Iconium to kill Paul. The brethren protected him.
- Derbe - Preached and taught many people.
- Lystra, Iconium, Antioch - On the return trip they taught the Christians more, encouraged them, and ordained elders.
- Antioch - Reported the success of the journey and that the Gentiles had received the word.
